Anti Bullying Week / Odd Socks Day

Anti-Bullying Week returns next week and this year the theme is 'Choose Respect'.

From playgrounds to parliament, our homes to our phones, this Anti-Bullying Week the Anti-Bullying Alliance encourages us to 'Choose Respect' and bring an end to bullying which negatively impacts millions of young lives.

Imagine a world where respect and kindness thrive — it's not just a dream, it's in the choices we make. So, on Monday afternoon, our Anti-Bullying Ambassadors will be leading an assembly to help us with this ideal.

On Tuesday 12 November, we invite all children to wear odd socks for the day. Odd Socks Day is a chance for schools to celebrate Anti-Bullying Week in a positive way by asking pupils and staff to wear odd socks to school. There's a serious message behind the fun - let's pull on odd socks to show we're ALL unique and different, and let's be kind to each other and respect each other's individuality. There is no pressure to wear the latest fashion or buy expensive costumes. All you need to do to take part is wear odd socks - it could not be simpler!

Art Workshops

On Wednesday next week, Cotswolds Arts Through Schools are running underwater-themed, acrylic ink workshops in Year 1 to Year 6 classes.

Please bring in an apron or an old shirt to wear as ink can stain!

Children In Need Fancy Dress Friday

Children in Need day is Friday 15 November and money raised is used to support charities providing frontline help to children and young people in communities throughout the UK. On Friday, we are encouraging children to come to school wearing an item of yellow and/or spotty clothing as well as bringing in a £1 (or more) donation.

Everyday next week, student council will also be selling merchandise before school in the playground. The following items are available: Pudsey pens (£1), wristbands (£1), classic Pudsey ears (£2.50), small Pudsey teddies (£5), one limited edition 11th Doctor Who Pudsey (£15). We only take cash – hurry while stocks last!
